The following report of Remodeling (was) committee appointed 4mo 20th 1916 has been read and accepted and the committee is released.

To the Business Meeting Eastern Friends.

Your committee appointed 4mo 20th 1916 to raise money for making repairs and improvements on the Meeting House, respectfully submit a report of their doings, viz:

Report of Committee on Improvements on the Meeting House

We have collected from various sources, including our own members Friends in various parts of our own Yearly Meeting, also in Philadelphia Yearly Meeting, also business firms and individuals not Friends, as per the accompaning statement, the sum of $3035.90.

A sub-committee of three of our members have carried out the plans as agreed upon, and authorized from time to time, and now report that the work has been completed with the exception of painting the basement classroom, kitchen and toilet and supplying electric light fixtures. They have expended the sum of $302.52 leaving a balance of $14.38 which has been turned over to the Treas. of the Meeting, Edith F. McFarlane.

To Tom A. Sykes, through whose efforts and solicitations, the funds were largely contributed and collected, we give our sincere thanks and our deep sense of gratitude.

We recommend that a summary of this report be sent to the Monthly Meeting for its information and record, that Meeting having granted permission to raise these funds for remodeling the Meeting House.

We request that the committee be discharged and that the Finance Committee be authorized and instructed to complete the improvements contemplated as soon as the funds will permit

Also to collect the unpaid subscriptions and call in the banks that have not been returned.

Respectfully submitted,

Geo. C. Herbert
C. Hardesty } on behalf of the Com.

Finance Committee to complete improvements

The recommendations of the com. are adopted and the Finance Com. is authorized to complete the contemplated improvements in the basement as far as funds now in hand and that shall be received for the purpose will admit.

The Clerk is directed to convey to Tom A. Sykes, the sentiments suggested in the above report, as he is now a resident of Lawrence and a pastor of the Friends Meeting there. Having resigned ~~as~~ pastor here last Sun. in June (23) after a pastorate of nearly three (3) years.

Men's circle have n't started their fall work. Bible School class avg.

Emma Fisher report quite a little sewing had been done for War Relief and some for parties near us. Women had been good to help. Charles Delano & Ralph were appointed ushers for three months. Emma Fisher (and Fannie Cracraft) appointed to welcome people. Charles Delano volunteered to count the audiences Sundays.

Pastoral Com. asked the meeting to voice their feeling about Alice A. Mendenhall remaining as a worker. There was a large majority not favoring her remaining Alice A Mendenhall.

Edith McFarlan was appointed custodian of the dishes.

The business of the meeting being completed we adjourn subject to meet 12 mo 1917.

Report of a Special Meeting of the Eastern Ave. Friends' Society held the 8th month 23rd day, 1918.

The meeting was opened with prayer. There were twelve members present.

The first reading was that of a minute prepared by the Pastoral Committee, as follows viz.

The Pastoral Committee ask for a Special Business Meeting, to consider the following minute from the record of 8 mo 5. 1918-

"Earl J. Harrold, of the special Committee on Ministry and Oversight reports that Harold S. Rotzel, our present supply, will continue with us, giving us one half his time, if we will pay for a full stenographer for him at $15.00 a week

If we can only pay $10.00 for a part time stenographer he would feel it only just for a proportionate time.

(Signed) Lizzie N. Lane
Clerk of Pastoral Committee.

There was a discussion of the minute after which it was agreed that the meeting approved of giving Mr. Rotzel a call to become our pastor.

It was stated that the Evangelistical Committee approve of him and will help the meeting

The meeting directed the clerk to send a call to Mr. Rotzel.

report for the year 1918.
"We have used the pledge and envelope system the past year with varied success. While many have been ready to pledge, others have not been.
yet in some cases have been very ready when necessary to raise the four special collections for plumbing, fire insurance, coal, and balance of plumbing bills.

This fact with the help of the Evangelistic Committee ends Sept 1. Nov, by getting along without a pastor by volunteer service, gives the opportunity to come out at the end of the year without any debts.
We start out with pledges amounting to $570 per week for another year.
